

Emergency and Environmental Leadership Best Practices

ETM 494/598

Spring 2009

Dr. Nicholas Hild and Mr. Al Brown

Choose on-line or classroom option. Students pursuing emergency management and environmental careers with industry, government, military and NGO's will benefit.

The following topics will be covered:

Environmental Ethics

Environmental Management Systems

Risk Management for EH & S Managers

Negotiations and Conflict Resolution

Public Relations

Budgeting for Emergency Management and Environmental Performance

Personnel Management

Government Affairs

REGISTER NOW:

ONLY 25 CLASSROOM SEATS AVAILABLE

For more information, contact Dr. Hild at drnick@asu.edu ; 480-727-1309; or Al Brown at al.brown@asu.edu; 480-727-1320

Topics will be presented by Dr. Hild, Al Brown and several guest speakers to ensure a diverse range of perspectives on the issues and topics. Invited guest speakers include:

Sandy Bahr, ED, Sierra Club Grand Canyon Chapter
Ian Bingham, ADEQ Performance Track Manager
Chuck Blanchard, Environmental law attorney, Perkins and Coie

Ethel De Marr, Retired, former ADHS Division Director and SRP EH & S Manager

Dr. David Edwards, Emergency Management Professor, ASU/ETM program

Ed Fox, VP APS, Sustainability Director

John Godec, Public Relations Consultant, Godec Randall Associates

Joe Holmes, EMS software provider, ATC Associates

Dr. Pat Mariella, Director, ASU American Indian Programs

Dr. Larry Olson, ETM Chemistry Professor

Marc Osborn, Environmental Lobbyist, R&R Partners

Larry Persons, Sr. Env. Coordinator, City of Scottsdale

Dr. Danny Peterson, Emergency Management Professor, ASU/ETM program

Bill Poole, Director, EH & S, Boeing Mesa Plant

Norm Weiss, Environmental consultant, NW Associates